Maui Hews PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY

OFFICE BAILEY BLOCK, MAIN ST. WAILUKU, MAUL B. I.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES One year, (in advance) 82.50 L. M. Halewin, Sheriff, Six months 1.50 W. H. Arselden, Legenty Sheriff,
W. E. King,
Che estamas et the News month communities (i. Trimbie.

The columns of the News adult communion of Trimble, a stress on perthant layer, With only on one side of unper. Sign your name which the foodness, Captain Police, will be held confidential if so live! (2) Kalsama. G. B. ROBERTSON, Ed. and Prop. P. J. Frears MRS. G. B. ROBERTSON, Bus. Mgr.

Saturday, April 21

cape is to javite further excesses.

Japanese flag.

rattle.

suburbs.

of the mainland.

MAUI BLUE BOOK

J. W. Ralun, Circuit Judge N. Kroin, Clerk Bircuit Co e f. B.Robertson Dist. Magis

dance, a poolintainele.

W. T. Hoblison, Deputy Assessor, W. O. Alden, once be arrested and punished. To allow the guilty parties to est thrict Magistrate must go on gin'val

There should be no half way measures adopted with the Japanese strikers, in case they should become riotous or disorderly.

try such a thing in the United States, they would be mobbed be-

As long as they remain orderly, the question of what to do with

If possible to find out who are the parties who offered indignities

It is not optimism in the News to predict the growth of Wailu-

ku. It can no more help growing than a healthy baby or a spring lamb. The suggestion is sametimes heard that Waiiuku is throtto put in care, the cane will go and the town will come. What is needed is an energetic, active administration of city affairs, and a like class of new comers will appear. Wailuku will always be the shire town of Maui, with court house, jail, schools and the other concomitants of a city. The Plantation will sell city lots as soon

As a beautiful and healthy site for a city. Wailuku has no peer on the Islands. Nestled in the foot hills at the mouth of Iao Valley, it is out of the full sweep of the trade winds, but is always fanned by gentle breezes fresh from the ocean which keep the air delight-

. . .

We occasionally hear it asserted here on Mani that there has been no real plague either in Honolulu or at Kahului, but that the scare has been generated and worked for the purpose of raking the Hawaiian treasury. If true, this ought to be known, and to determine the matter, the NEWS proposes to the next doubting

Thomas that, in the interests of the public, he should go down to

To a disinterested observer, it seems as though the British

The fighting so far has been on British territory, and while gubtheir own territory even if that much can be claimed. But when it comes to carrying the war into the heart of the Transvaal, there is liable to be another tale of bloodshed and carnage told which will

. . .

It certainly seems a singuistreontention on the part of the business men in Honolulu to demand that the Court of Claims should be composed of business men rather than lawyers. Doubtless,

President McKinley's intention was to create a Court and not a 008

As the News editorially hinted recently, the pettigrews in Congress have had their day. Of course the Senate will not concur in the House amendments, and a joint conference will probably be needed to arrange terms for a proper and satisfactory measure.

It is not time yet to discuss the measures proposed, as many of them will die in the Committee. It is likely, however, that the house may prove stubborn, which will prevent the passage of the Hawai-

Quod E-Rat Demonstrandum on his tombstone.

dwarf the history of the conflict already written.

until the personnel of the Court was announced.

to the Japanese who came over to settle the trouble, they should at them should be left to the Courts to decide, but the moment that they try by force or intimidation to accomplish their ends, they

Wall

-looking for the nagur in the finee. And it is a serious question whether they should be allowed to parade with the Japanese dag dying over them. If they were to fore they could go a block unless they carried "Old Glory" above the such as the immejete discharge av the boss of the plantation, the book-Magistrate; the manager, because he is careful av the intherests under should be called down with a jar which would make their teeth bis care; the bookkeeper because be eiver makes misthake an pays thim more than they have carned at the ind av the month; the doether is a principles. "They also demand the immejate payment to themselves av the slight um av Twinty-three Thousand Dollars unto their own use an behoof foriver, on account' av the sudding tled in the clutches of the Wajluku Sugar Plantation. This is death by accident av two av their gammon. The management of the Plantation is a practical business counthrymen, an' the death av one proposition, and as soon as it is more profitable to build a town than by decease pershoner non grater, an' the Dish-

"Not long afther, the Judge av the Disthrict found that he had become dishqualified to thry the case which the Japanese premeditated agin the plantation, an' sint over to Wailuku, the Hub av legal learning as it become more profitable to do so than to cuitivate cane in the on the Island av Maui, for a substhitute for the occasion.

"Two envoys exthra-ordinary wint over to Wailukn an' reurned agin, an' their return was the most exthraordinary parrt av the proceeding, Pat, sure it was. It was a very 'irregular proceeding." an' faith, fully cool and exhibiting. An abundance of fresh, pure water is they must have thought they were in assured, and no lovelier spot could be found anywhere for either the sthraight an' narrer path, by ideal summer cottages for the heat burdened citizens of other por- the way the soides av the turn-pike tions of the Islands, or for a winter resort for the ice locked towns kept sthriking thim first on one side an' thin on the other.

"One av the envoys says to the other; "say, Bill, they say it's a long road as has no turnin'." "Right you are there, me brother," says the other; but what puzzles me jist now. shure, is how to prevint this road from turnin' at ivery sthep.

'It's meself that hopes they got hom agin safe. Pat, for they must be an Kabului and fondle the next dead rat that is found under the ware-lilligant pair of b'vs to get such a house. The News will guarantee to pay the cost of carving butiful bramiganon. Arcal, Pat. t's the evils av affluence they'll have to contind with in the near future, if these sthrikes continue.

"They're tellin' me that a couple of army is just getting ready to begin the conquest of the Bocks. Jap dendes from Honolulu were sint up to thry to pacify the strokers. stantial victory has so far rested with the British arms, yet the One av thim was a Secretary av the result has hardly been more than to reestablish the British in Cousel's corpse an the other was a clerk in the Irrigatin' Company.

"All the influence they had was used in their own behalf thryin' to get out av the eamp with whole skins after they got in, whin they succeeded they sat down and whistled. There'll be a hot time in the old time tonight", an' weited for a change in the situation.

"Sthrikers have some rights?" "That's a three world for ye, Pat, committee. And doubtless President Dole so understood it. In but let me tell you this, me boy, it fact it never occurred to any one that it was not to be a real Court will more healthy for yez to express of Claims, with like functions as the Court of Claims at Washington, such thoughts sollently to yesself olke, beense yez want to run for guverner, by and by.

> An" thin I hear, too, that the conthract men at a small place called Allawallow have gone and summond the plantation to show just cause. if any, why they can't be paid at the ind av the mouth whin the worrk is done, an' not on the middle of the dexi month as is the custhom now. Sure, an' the boss says that it takes the pen jammer half a month to count out the cash and get the pay roll in ordher,

> "The plaintiffs over that it is a job be havin' this kind of a non-intherest drawin' savings bank sprung at their pockets. And they further laquire. what is the use or benifit of bein' a deprised of the privilege of running away. Sure, an they must be Allin-a-wallow" over there, jury thrial or no jury thrial.'

MORE ANON.

Subscribe

For the MAUI NEWS

New-Principle Steam Engine. A RAYZHUMAY.

'Say, Pat. I've heard some talk about these little coolie people what At the recent centennial of the they call Japanese over there at La- Royal Technical High School at Charhaina. Does ye know what kind o' lottenberg, Germany, Prof. Josse a thrick they're after playing now? peade an announcement which pro-Well. I'll tell ye, it's a thrick what mises to introduce entirely new econosevers more o' Amerikey than o' mies juto the development of power Japan or Chancy. They've sthruck from steam. worrk, ivery sowl av them, and quit It is well know that the steam their job, sayin' it wor their latiation | boiler and engine, notwithstanding to look for that "pagar in the fince" all improvements which it has underan' thry to pull him out. They took gone during the past hundred years, flags to show the people how this and its incalculable service to man-was very near to a national crisis kind, is nevertheless a wasteful and an' thin marrehed around the town, extravagant device for converting the energy stored in feel into mechanical power. The ordinary, simple, "Afther this, they wint and he high pressure engine, which, after quoired what the plantation contimps passing steam through one cylinder, lated doing about it, an' hinted at discharges it into the air, utilizes terms for the settlement av the dish | hardly more than 5 per cent. of the pute. They wanted to be rasonable fuel consumed under its boiler. The an' asked for only a few thrifling con- compound engine, in which the steam, cessions in a conciliatory kind o' way, after passing successfully through two, three, or more cylinders, is condensed, and the warm water of emkeeper, the doctor and the Disthrict densation restored to the boiler, utilizes under favorable conditions 12 to 13 per cent, of the fuel energy, and there the economy appears to have stopped. The lavention described by Prof.

Josee 4s the joint production of Behrend and Zimmgrman, both Germans, and under repeated practical tests has developed more than half as much again power from a specified consumption of fuel as a high class compound engine. In an ordinary steam engine the exhaust is liberated cent visit to the plantations of the nto the epen sir, at a temperature committee sent by the American of about 212 degrees, and all the heat | Sugar Company, the stockholders of absorbed in-bringing the temperature that corporation have offered to put up to that point is lost. In the new in a mill, and to make a contract ping. Preparations for commencing engine the exhaust steam is used to with Kamalo to grind their cane. the work are already being made, and vaporize a liquid which has a lower If the deal goes through, it is said, boiling point than water, and the it will be of advantage to both parties; has already been let. vapor thus obtained operates a sec. Kamalo will not need a mill, and on ond engine. The liquid chosen for the other hand their cane will give this purpose is sulphurous acid, that employment to the American Sugar s water impregnated with sulphur Companay's mill, which would other dioxide gas. The liquid has a certain wise have little or nothing to do dor viscid or soapy quality which makes ing the first year or two. it unnecessary to employ any oil -Advertiser. lubricant in the engine cylinder where it is used. The exhaust steam in the Australia last Wednesday, is passes around a vaporizer in which very ill at his home on Emma street. is contained the sulphurous acid; the He was ailing when he arrived in the acid boils and gives off the sulphur steamer mentioned. In Miner, Mr. dioxide gas, and this passes to the Campbell's physician, says he may secondary engine cylinder, where it get well or he might die in a week. acts exactly as steam would. The That his case is desperate is evi exhaust gas is then passed through a condenser and is thence returned Francisco, has been sent for. y a pump to the vaporizer, where it is used over again; and so on indefinitely. The tests made show that the of the present type produce. Extend- king ship. that various other liquids, vaporis-

Waman is the "One."

"That husband and wife are one is an axiona in common law, and under the wharf by the two sons of Mr. all old interpretations it was equally Judd resident here. It is expected 22 miles of my place but I am afraid accepted as axiomatic that that one that Mr. Judd will go to his place on that would be too long a drive for was the husband. But it has been the other side of the Island as soon as left for a North Carolina judge to he is strong enough. rule that that one was the wife. A dispatch from Raleigh dated Febru- Justice Judd on the Supreme bench ary 27, states that the suitor of a which has been the subject of much young woman was invited by her discussion for several months is made and wife are one she had a right to be left for the Coast. invite the young man. An appeal | He is willing to step out whenever was taken by the father to the su- his successor is appointed but holds perior court, which will be called on that he is still the Chief Justice until to rule as to the wife's equalprights on then. the family premises."

In writing the obituary of the late

Robert Hoapili was not a Labatinatunn scholar but received his education at St. Alban's College, in Hono--Independent.

ISLAND NEWS

FROM HONOLULU

The Robert Grieve Publishing Company is the proposed corporation that will take over the printing establishment of the late Robert Grieve and publish the new Morning Republican. The officers will be: A. S. Humphreys, President: J. A. Me-Candless, Vice President; Treasurer, J. H. Fisher; Secretary, Geo. W. Smith; Auditor, J. L. McLean. These officers together with W. A. Henshall and J. D. McVeigh will constitute the Board of Directors. The articles of incorporation will be filed in a few days. Orders for additional linetypes and presses have already been forwarded to the Coast Bulletin.

Wm. Hoopi (Barefooted Bill) and Kalung were caught redhanded in the act of blowing up the safe in L. B. Kerr & Co.'s Saturday night by Deputy Marshal Chillingworth, Barefooted Bill has confessed the whole thing and is out again on bond as he was when he entered Kerr's. Kaluna wili probably plead guilty. The ease came up in the Police Court and was set for the 19th inst.—Bulletin.

A proposition for a deal between the American Sugar Company and the Kamalo people is understood to be under consideration by the stockholders of both companies. As a consequence, presumably, of the re-

Jas. Campbell, who arrived bome deneed by the fact that his daughter, now in Notre Dane college, in San

HOME AGAIN.

Hon. A. F. Judd, with wife, daughatilization of the exhaust steam in ter and one son arrived on the Austhis way makes it possible to get tralia April 11. The party left New apwards of 50 per cent. more power York two weeks age today stopping institution, may feel proud. out of the coal than the best engines in San Francisco one day before ta-ing the principle, it would seem Mr. Judd, whose health was poor. ing at graduated tempertures below a visit to the East. As time went on day, "I will make preperations to the boiling point of water could be there was not the improvement am- build a hotel for the acommodation used, in succession, until all the heat dicipated and he seemed to grow of tourists and the people of Hilo who of the exhaust has been extracted, worse. Since February 1, the Chief want to get above sen level and en-Lakewood, New Jersey, until they went to New York to start for home. The fatigue of the long journey across The Woman's Tribune, always on the continent and the rather rough he lookout for interesting cases con- trip from San Francisco here has erning the legal status of women, compelled Mr. Judd to deny himself to friends for several days.

The returning family was met at

The question of a successor to Chief nother, but forbidden by her father. more pointed by his return to Hono-Accepting the invitation the ungry lulu. It is understood that he himother slied him for trespass. The self-says that as far as he is concerned mother signed his bond. The case the matter is in exactly the same was tried and the father lost, the position as when he tendered his reamgistrate holding that as husband signation to President Dole before

This is the contention of President Dole, also. A fortnight ago the Su preme Court refused to declare Mr. Judd's seat vacant or otherwise, and Robert Hoapili Baker, the Adver- cases are now being tried before Assotiser makes two errors. The late clate Justices Frear and Whiting with Colonel was not the model for the Circuit Justice Perry sitting in Mrstatue of Kamehamelia L. R. was Judd's stead. Many members of the the manly form of his cousin John T. har do not believe this a constitution-Baker, who inspired the sculptor, alcourt and are unwilling to try their clients' cases before it.

President Dole sald yesterday that nothing relative to the appointment lulu, and at Lunchu, in Luhaina, un- of a successor to the incumbent had der Archdeacon Mason of the Angli- been learned from Washington. can Mission. He was a fellow school The matter has been in the hands of mate of Majors Nowlein and Lauken. the authorities there for a long time, -Advertiser.

FROM HAWAII

[PROM THE RIDO THIRENE.]

The Coroner's jury impaneled to eport upon the cause of death of the ate Gus Schwartz rendered the verdict Wednesday afternoon to the effect that decease came to his death through a knife wound in the neck inflicted by the band of Arthur Meyners who was thereupon held for examination before the District Court on Monday next.

Mr. Schwartz leaves a widowed mother and a sister, whose residence is in San Francisco. It had been his intention to return home in a short time and arrange for their future comfort and happiness with the proceeds of some profitable real estate transaction which he had made here.

Miss Mary Krout announces that she will come to Hilo and give a course of three Drawing-room Talks during the last week in April or the first week in May, if she can be assued of a class of thirty-five. She will give three lectures in the evening if gentlemen desire to attend; in the afternoon, if only ladies subscibe, Tickets for the course will be $3.

The subjects are: "Peking and the Great Wall," "Manila and the Philippines," "Impressions of London and Personal Reminiscences of Authors." Any who would like to attend this course are requested to send treir names to Mrs. L. M. Severance during the coming week, Miss Krout has given these lectures: most successfully in Honolula.

Hilo Wharf is to be extended 150 feet to accommodate increased shipthe contract for getting out piles

Dr. H. B. Elliot left by yesterday's Kineu for Kohala, to investigate what are believed to be cases of glanders in that district. Dr. Elliot will probably return by next Kinau. He has not yet heard from the inspector in Honoiulu relative: to the glands sent down from Olan for microscopic inspection.

The First Bank of Hilo is now fully organized for business, as may be seen from their notice which appears elsewhere in this issue. At the meeting held last Saturday morning the following officers were chosen: P. Peck, president; C. C: Kennedy vice-president; John T. Moir, eashier; W. S. Wise, attorney,

The bank is located in quarters which are a credit to the institution, and of which the town of Hilo, as well as those connected with the PROPERTY OF THE ALC.

"When the Kohala-Hilo read runs left here about seven months ago for by my place," said Eben Low yester-Justice and Mrs. Judd have been at joy the bracing air and have a few day's shooting.

> "I have now in blossom fruit of every variety; Riverside oranges grow on my place and are as hischas us the fruit of California; peaches rot on the ground for the want of means to get them to market and oliveswell, they fairly grow wild.

"The proposed road will go within tourists though the road and grade is all right.

"If the line goes to Konn I think it will go near enough to us to begin business. "How would you enjoy a meal at which a nice wild duck was the piece. de resistence and the dessert fresh peaches with Jersey creem? I don't care to tell you everything we grow there because you would be dissatisfied with your bill of fare in which timed goods is a feature.

We can grow mything and we have a climate, at an elevation of 2000 feet that will rejuvenate anyone who will. stop with it for a couple of weeks."

Mr. Low is an enthusiast in the enitivation of small fruits from the

The first gun for a popular demonstration in Hilo on July Fourth next was fired Saturday night and what the gathering at the Court House tacked in numbers was made up in enthusiasm. The object of the meeting was to appoint committees, one on finance and one on general arrangements with the central idea of preparing a program and collecting the necessary funds with which to earry it through.

ian bill at this session of Congress. ...

It is three weeks today since the last plague case occurred in Honolulu, and if there are no more cases by the end of the month, to prevint them from running away, the Board of Health will doubtless declare Honolulu a free port.

Massachusetts and Kentucky have crossed swords on the saloon question in the Islands, and Mussachusetts made a palpable a continuet laborer if they are to be hit. But wait till ---- & Co. of Honoluly are heard from.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey think of running for president with Teddy for a kite tail. Wouldn't that prove rather a strain on the proverbial gratitude of republics?

Now that the Customs officers are freed from quarantine restraint opium smuggling will languish on Maui.